October 24-26, 2011 ♦ 0800—1600 daily
Eanes-Pittman Public Safety training Center
Chesterfield, Virginia ♦ Police Classroom 1

Presented by John E. Reid and Associates, Inc.

Eighteen hours of DCJS In-service credit will be awarded for sucessful completion of this class.

The cost for this class is $420/person. CCPD supervisors, please register individuals by submitting a completed PD -116 form to the Training Division. All others register by sending an email to pdtraining@chesterfield.gov. A check or purchase order is due no later than the first day of class.

More than 300,000 professionals in the law enforcement and security fields have attended this three-day program since it was first offered in 1974. Participants come from both the private and the public sector, including all levels of law enforcement and government; every U.S. state and Canadian province, Europe, Asia and the Middle East.

This training seminar features a discussion of three primary topics: Behavior Symptom Analysis (the verbal and nonverbal behavioral characteristics which can be used to distinguish a truthful person from a deceptive individual); the Behavior Analysis Interview (a non-accusatory interview process utilizing both investigative and behavior provoking questions); and, "The Reid Nine Steps of Interrogation."

SEMINAR TOPICS INCLUDE

- Interview and Interrogation Preparation
- Distinction Between an Interview and Interrogation
- Proper Room Environment
- Factors Affecting a Subject's Behavior
