Nondiscrimination Statement

The Chesterfield County Parks and Recreation Department provides opportunities and recreation programs that are open and accessible to all citizens in the county regardless of race, color, nationality, age, sex, religion, socioeconomic status or level of physical or intellectual ability.

Inclusion

We invite individuals with disabilities to take part in any Course listed in the department brochure. To ensure an individual's success in a program, staff known as "inclusion coaches" will be available to provide assistance. The Therapeutic Recreation staff provides assistance based on reasonable accommodations, which are determined on a case-by-case basis. We ask that an inclusion coach be requested at least three weeks prior to the start of a summer camp or program. Details: 751-4134

May we add your e-mail address to our list?

We are collecting e-mail addresses to better provide citizens with the information and services in which you are most interested. Information may include notices of special events, new programs and facilities, registration dates, volunteer opportunities and more. You will have the opportunity to opt-in or opt-out of the service. Send an email to parksrec@chesterfield.gov to have your address put on the list. Please include your mailing address and phone number in the email. You can also join our list by using REGi, go to chesterfield.gov/parks.
