

HENRICUS HISTORICAL PARK

For more information call 748-1611 or www.henricus.org.

Henricus Historical Park re-creates 17th-century life in the second successful permanent English settlement in North America and in the Indian site of Arrohatock. Due to its prime location as a military outpost on a bluff overlooking the James River, the site also boasts rich Civil War history which visitors may experience through special events and programs. Surrounded by the Dutch Gap Conservation Area, the living history museum offers exceptional SOL- and STEM-aligned Pre-K-12 and adult education programs. There are also indoor and outdoor meeting and special event spaces available for rental. Henricus Historical Park is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization which operates in partnership with the Henricus Foundation and the counties of Chesterfield and Henrico. For more information about Henricus Historical Park visit www.henricus.org, or follow on Facebook and Twitter.
