

Do you have a loved one whose substance use is concerning?

Join the Care and Concern Group.

- We meet every Monday from 6:00 to 7:30 pm.
- Connect with others who have experienced friends, family members, and loved ones battling addiction who can offer support.
- This group will be led by a substance abuse counselor. There is no fee for attending and walk-in participants are welcome.
- Substance use & abuse will be discussed. Education will be provided on what you can do to help loved ones who have an addiction.
