I. INTRODUCTION

The Civil Rights Restoration Act of 1987 clarified the intent of Title VI to include all programs and activities of Federal-aid recipients, sub-recipients, and contractors whether those programs and activities are federally funded or not.

Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color, or national origin in programs and activities receiving Federal financial assistance. Specifically, Title VI provides that "no person in the United States shall, on the ground of race, color, or national origin, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance." (42 U.S.C. Section 2000d).

Recently, the Federal Transit Administration (FTA) has placed renewed emphasis on Title VI issues, including providing meaningful access to persons with Limited English Proficiency.

Recipients of public transportation funding from FTA and the Virginia Department of Rail and Public Transportation (DRPT) are required to develop policies, programs, and practices that ensure that federal and state transit dollars are used in a manner that is nondiscriminatory as required under Title VI.

This document details how Chesterfield Community Services Board incorporates nondiscrimination policies and practices in providing services to the public. Chesterfield Community Services Board Title VI policies and procedures are documented in this plan and its appendices and attachments. This plan will be updated periodically (at least every three years) to incorporate changes and additional responsibilities that arise.

II. OVERVIEW OF SERVICES

Chesterfield Community Services Board is the provider of mental health, intellectual disabilities, and substance abuse services for children and adults in Chesterfield County. Services are also available for very young children through our Prevention and Early Intervention Programs.

In ID (intellectual disability) Services, we provide flexible and individualized supports to children and adults with intellectual disabilities. These include Residential supports to adults, training/support to individuals (age 11– adult) with intellectual disabilities, among other services.

ID Residential provides residential supports to adults with intellectual disabilities based on individual needs. ID Residential provides three levels of support to those with intellectual disabilities:

Supported Living, 24-hour group homes and cluster programs.

- Supported Living develops support plans for individuals who are living in their own homes based on the individuals' needs and preferences.
- Group homes are staffed 24 hours a day, seven days a week. The homes are three to five bedrooms and are located within various Chesterfield County neighborhoods.

- Cluster programs are supported 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Cluster programs are located at various apartment complexes in Chesterfield County.

Day Support programs are center-based programs located in the community for adults with a primary diagnosis of intellectual disability. Program participants must be willing to participate in developing and implementing their individual service plan. The day support program has two sites. Both sites serve adults with intellectual disabilities, 18 and older.

The Day Support Program provides training and supports to individuals with intellectual disabilities and promotes activities that are leisure oriented, community based, and that enhance individual skill development. The program also engages individuals in recreational activities focused on socialization, music and art therapy, simple cooking instruction, sensory stimulation, personal care instruction, as well as, volunteer opportunities. The program has volunteer agreements with organizations such as Meals on Wheels and Thrifty Quaker where individuals can gain work experience.

Chesterfield Employment Services provides job seeking and job training support to Chesterfield County residents 18 or older with intellectual disabilities who are referred by a case manager and who want to work in the community.

Chesterfield Employment services assists people with finding and keeping jobs. Our staff, called job coaches, will help individuals decide what kind of job they would like and where to apply. The job coaches will go with them to the interview and will be at the job site to provide training and support while the employee learns all parts of the job. Once the employee can do the job without help, the job coach will gradually back out of the picture to let the person be independent at their job. The job coach periodically will stop in to see if the employee wants or needs further assistance, and to see if the employer is happy with the work the individual is doing.

Public Outreach and Involvement

PUBLIC PARTICIPATION PLAN

Public outreach and involvement applies to and affects Chesterfield Community Services Board's mission and work program as a whole, particularly agency efforts and responsibilities related to Chesterfield Community Services Board's transportation service planning. The overall goal of Chesterfield Community Services Board's public outreach and involvement policy is to secure early and continuous public notification about, and participation in, major actions and decisions by Chesterfield Community Services Board. In seeking public comment and review, Chesterfield Community Services Board makes a concerted effort to reach all segments of the population, including people from minority and low-income communities, persons with limited English Proficiency and organizations representing these and other protected classes. Chesterfield Community Services Board utilizes a broad range of public outreach information and involvement opportunities, including a process for written comments, public meetings after effective notice, settings for open discussion, information services, and consideration of and response to public comments.

Public Outreach Activities

Chesterfield Community Services Board takes the following steps to ensure that minority, low-income, and LEP members of the community have meaningful access to public outreach and involvement activities, including those conducted as part of the planning process for proposed changes in transportation services, fares, and facilities development.

- Publishing public notices within local newspapers of general circulation as well as those targeted at minority, low income, and LEP persons and on the agency's website.

VIII. LANGUAGE ASSISTANCE PLAN FOR PERSONS WITH LIMITED ENGLISH PROFICIENCY (LEP)

Introduction and Legal Basis

LEP is a term that defines any individual not proficient in the use of the English language. The establishment and operation of an LEP program meets objectives set forth in Title VI of the Civil Rights Act and Executive Order 13166, Improving Access to Services for Persons with Limited English Proficiency (LEP). This Executive Order requires federal agencies receiving financial assistance to address the needs of non-English speaking persons. The Executive Order also establishes compliance standards to ensure that the programs and activities that are provided by a transportation provider in English are accessible to LEP communities. This includes providing meaningful access to individuals who are limited in their use of English. The following LEP language implementation plan, developed by Chesterfield Community Service Board is based on Federal Transit Administration (FTA) guidelines.

As required, Chesterfield Community Service Board developed a written LEP Plan (below). Using American Community Survey (ACS) data, Chesterfield Community Service Board has evaluated data to determine the extent of need for translation services of its vital documents and materials.

LEP persons can be a significant market for public transit and reaching out to these individuals can help increase their utilization of transit. Therefore, it also makes good business sense to translate vital information into languages that the larger LEP populations in the community can understand.

Assessment of Needs and Resources

The need and resources for LEP language assistance were determined through a four-factor analysis as recommended by FTA guidance.

Factor 1: Assessment of the Number and Proportion of LEP Persons Likely to be Served or Encountered in the Eligible Service Population

The agency has reviewed census data on the number of individuals in its service area that have limited English Proficiency, as well as the languages they speak.

U.S. Census Data – American Community Survey (2011-2015)

Data from the U.S. Census Bureau’s American Community Survey (ACS) were obtained through www.census.gov by Chesterfield Community Service Board’s service area. The agency’s service area includes a total of 13,327 (4.32%) persons with Limited English Proficiency (those persons who indicated that they spoke English “less than very well,” in the 2011-2015 ACS Census).

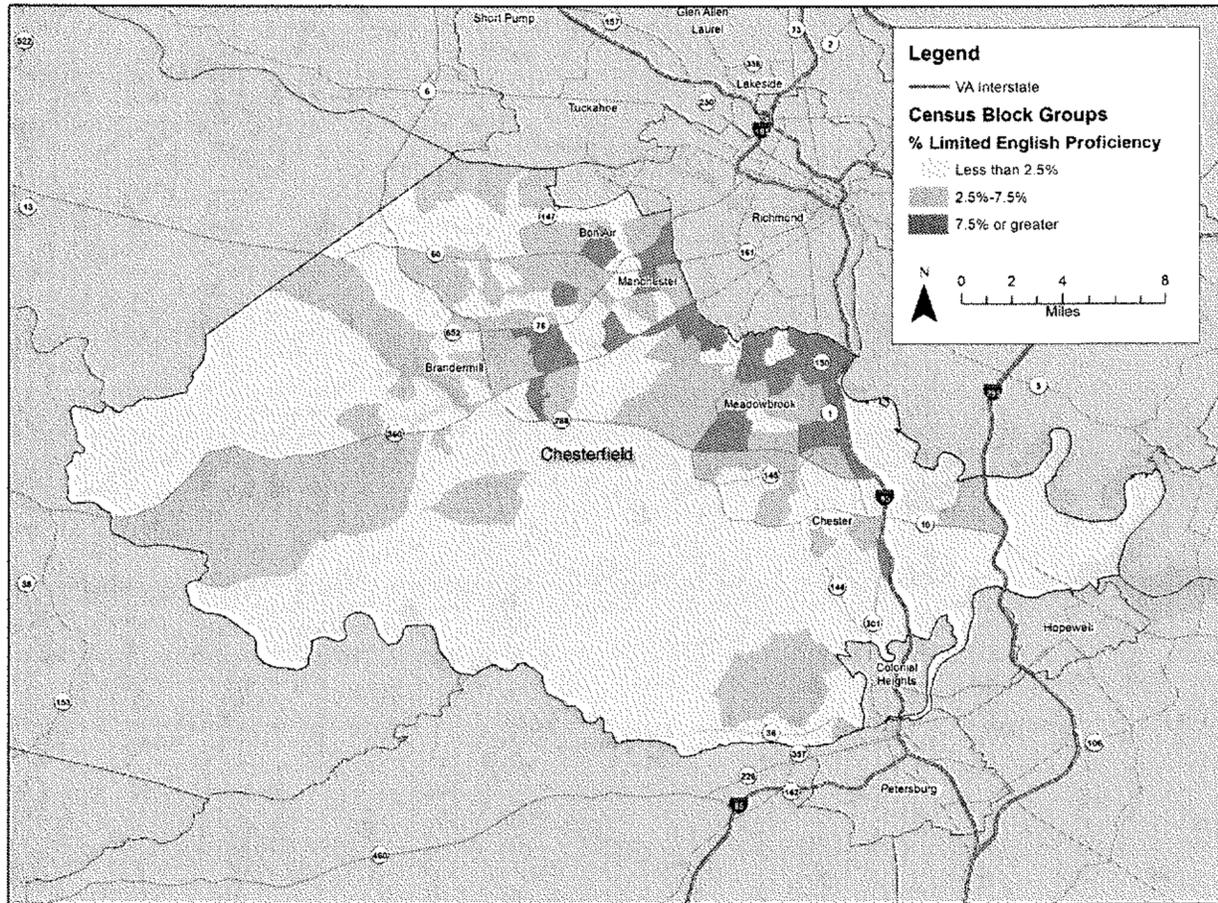

Information from the 2011-2015 ACS also provides more detail on the specific languages that are spoken by those who report that they speak English less than very well. Languages spoken at home by those with LEP are presented below. These data indicate the extent to which translations into other language are needed to meet the needs of LEP persons.

Factor 2: Assessment of Frequency with Which LEP Individuals Come Into Contact with the Transit Services or System

Chesterfield Community Services Board reviewed the relevant benefits, services, and information provided by the agency and determined the extent to which LEP persons have come into contact with these functions through the following channels:

- Contact with transit vehicle operators;
- Contact with transit manager;
- Calls to Chesterfield Community Services Board's customer service telephone line;
- Visits to the agency's headquarters;
- Access to the agency's website;

Chesterfield Community Services Board has ensured documents posted at the hub sites as well in vehicles are translated into Spanish and other languages upon request. Staff have access to the Chesterfield County Language Bank to connect persons with any language concerns.

We will continue to identify emerging populations as updated Census and American Community Survey data become available for our service area. In addition, when LEP persons contact our agency, we attempt to identify their language and keep records on contacts to accurately assess the frequency of contact.

Information from Community Organizations that Serve LEP Persons

Chesterfield Community Services Board has participated in provider fairs, workshops, and other informational meetings to share the services provided to individuals with developmental disabilities within the community. Chesterfield Community Services Board provides transportation to those who receive support from Chesterfield Employment Services to work competitively within the community. Routine surveys are conducted with individuals who use transportation services to gauge satisfaction and need of the service.

Factor 3: Assessment of the Nature and Importance of the Transit Services to the LEP Population

Chesterfield Community Services Board provides the following programs, activities and services:

Chesterfield Community Services Board provides transportation services to individuals with developmental and intellectual disabilities. The transportation support is necessary for individuals to participate in community integration as well as employment.

Based on past experience serving and communicating with LEP persons and interviews with community agencies, Chesterfield Community Services Board ensures that information regarding services and rights are posted at multiple sites of the organization as well as within vehicles. The information is posted in multiple languages. Staff have access to the Chesterfield County Language to assist persons as needed.

Factor 4: Assessment of the Resources Available to the Agency and Costs

The following language assistance measures currently being provided by Chesterfield Community Services Board

- Chesterfield Community Services does not budget specific costs to address language concerns. Chesterfield County utilizes resources in place to meet the need of language concerns as they arise.

Based on the analysis of demographic data and contact with community organizations and LEP persons, Chesterfield Community Services Board has determined that the following additional services are ideally needed to provide meaningful access:

Feasible and Appropriate Language Assistance Measures

Based on the available resources, the following language assistance measures are feasible and appropriate for our agency at this time:

- Rights to be posted at the hubs and in vehicles in Spanish.
- Transit staff have access to the Chesterfield Language Bank to assist if concerns arise.

LEP Implementation Plan

Through the four-factor analysis, Chesterfield Community Services Board has determined that the following types of language assistance are most needed and feasible:

Translation of vital documents into Spanish. These documents include:

- System Map and Ride Guide
- All printed materials on ADA Paratransit, including brochure, eligibility application package, and passenger policies and procedures
- Emergency preparedness brochure
- Staff have access to the Chesterfield County Language Bank to access the language as needed

Staff Access to Language Assistance Services

Agency staff who come into contact with LEP persons can access language services by contacting the Chesterfield Language Bank and connecting the individual as needed. All staff will be provided with a list of available language assistance services and additional information and referral resources (such as community organizations which can assist LEP persons). This list will be updated at least annually.

Responding to LEP Callers

Staff who answer calls from the public respond to LEP customers as follows: reaching out to the Chesterfield County Language Bank or connecting to the appropriate staff within the transit office.

Responding to Written Communications from LEP Persons

The following procedures are followed when responding to written communications from LEP persons: Staff will respond utilizing resources from the Chesterfield Language Bank as well as existing staff in the transit program.

Responding to LEP Individuals in Person

The following procedures are followed when an LEP person visits our customer service and administrative office: Connect to staff from the transit program that can speak the language or utilize the Chesterfield County Language Bank to have a translator report to the site.

The following procedures are followed by operators when an LEP person has a question on board a Chesterfield Community Services Board vehicle: each vehicle includes the Title VI information in both English and Spanish. If the driver cannot answer the question, he will access the Chesterfield County Language Bank as well as staff that may be fluent in the specific language.

Staff Training

As noted previously, all Chesterfield Community Services Board staff are provided with a list of available language assistance services and additional information and referral resources, updated annually.

All new hires receive training on assisting LEP persons as part of their sensitivity and customer service training. This includes:

- A summary of the transit agency's responsibilities under the DOT LEP Guidance;
- A summary of the agency's language assistance plan;
- A summary of the number and proportion of LEP persons in the agency's service area, the frequency of contact between the LEP population and the agency's programs and activities, and the importance of the programs and activities to the population;
- A description of the type of language assistance that the agency is currently providing and instructions on how agency staff can access these products and services; and
- A description of the agency's cultural sensitivity policies and practices.

Also, all staff who routinely come into contact with customers, as well as their supervisors and all management staff, receive annual refresher training on policies and procedures related to assisting LEP persons.

Chesterfield Community offers tuition reimbursement assistance for language courses at a local community college, training manuals/CDs/DVDs/online courses available to staff and instruction in basic phrases needed in the operating environment.

Providing Notice to LEP Persons

LEP persons are notified of the availability of language assistance through the following approaches:

- following our Title VI policy statement included on our vital documents.

- on our website, with links to translations of vital documents in other languages.
- through signs posted on our vehicles and in our customer service and administrative offices.

LEP persons will also be included in all community outreach efforts related to service and fare changes.

Monitoring/updating the plan

This plan will be updated on a periodic basis (at least every three years), based on feedback, updated demographic data, and resource availability.

As part of ongoing outreach to community organizations, Chesterfield Community Services Board will solicit feedback on the effectiveness of language assistance provided and unmet needs. In addition, we will conduct periodic surveys of the adequacy and quality of the language assistance provided and determine changes to LEP needs.

In preparing the triennial update of this plan, Chesterfield Community Services Board will conduct an internal assessment using the Language Assistance Monitoring Checklist provided in the FTA’s “Implementing the Department of Transportation’s Policy Guidance Concerning Recipients’ Responsibilities to Limited English Proficient (LEP) Persons: A Handbook for Public Transportation Providers.”

Based on the feedback received from community members and agency employees, Chesterfield Community Services Board will make incremental changes to the type of written and oral language assistance provided as well as to their staff training and community outreach programs. The cost of proposed changes and the available resources will affect the enhancements that can be made, and therefore Chesterfield Community Services Board will attempt to identify the most cost-effective approaches.

As the community grows and new LEP groups emerge, Chesterfield Community Services Board will strive to address the needs for additional language assistance.

IX. PROCEDURES FOR ENSURING EQUITY IN SERVICE PROVISION

Chesterfield Community Services Board is required to plan and deliver transportation services in an equitable manner. This means the distribution of transportation service levels and quality is to be equitable between minority and low-income populations and the overall population. Since transportation services provided by this program are designed specifically for individuals with disabilities, there is no disparity in the equitable delivery of services.

Monitoring Title VI Complaints

As part of the complaint handling procedure, the Title VI Manager investigates possible inequities in transportation service delivery for the route(s) or transportation service(s) about which the complaint was filed. Depending on the nature of the complaint, the review examines span of transportation service (days and hours), frequency, routing directness, interconnectivity with other routes and/or fare policy. If inequities are discovered during this review, options for reducing the disparity are explored, and transportation service or fare changes are planned if needed.

In addition to the investigation following an individual complaint, the Title VI Manager periodically reviews all complaints received to determine if there may be a pattern. At a minimum, this review is conducted as part of preparing the Annual Report and Update for submission to the DRPT.

Transportation Fare and Service Changes

Chesterfield Community Services Board follows its adopted written policy for the public comment process for major transportation service reductions and fare increases. With each proposed transportation service or fare change, Chesterfield Community Services Board considers the relative impacts on, and benefits to, minority and low-income populations, including LEP populations. All planning efforts for changes to existing transportation services or fares, as well as new transportation services, have a goal of providing equitable service.

X. DATA COLLECTION AND REPORTING PROCEDURES

Data collection

To ensure that Title VI reporting requirements are met, Chesterfield Community Services Board maintains:

- A log and database of Title VI complaints received. The investigation of and response to each complaint is tracked within the database.
- A log of the public outreach and involvement activities undertaken to ensure that minority and low-income people had a meaningful access to these activities. The agency maintains the following records related to public outreach and involvement:
 - Paper files with copies of materials published or distributed for each transportation planning project and transportation service/fare change, as well as all transportation news releases, public service announcements, surveys, and written summaries of in-person outreach events.
 - A log/database of public outreach and involvement activities, including dates, transportation planning project or transportation service/fare change supported (if applicable), type of activity, LEP assistance requested/provided, target audience, number of participants, and location of documentation within paper files.

Maintenance of these records is the responsibility of Administrative Secretary to the Assistant Director of Community Services.

Annual Report and Triennial Updates

Annual Reporting

As a sub recipient providing transportation service in an area with less than 400,000 population, Chesterfield Community Services Board submits an annual report to the DRPT that documents any Title VI investigations/complaints/lawsuits during the preceding 12 months.

Triennial Reporting

Every three years, the Chesterfield Community Services Board submits to DRPT, a complete list of the investigations/complaints/lawsuits received in the prior three years, a summary of the public outreach and involvement activities undertaken to ensure that minority and low-income people had a meaningful access to these activities, and any updates to this Title VI plan.

Updates to the Title VI Plan

As noted above, every three years, the Chesterfield Community Services Board submits to DRPT an update to this Title VI Plan. The triennial Title VI update includes the following items, or a statement to the effect that these items have not been changed since the previous submission, indicating date.

- A copy of any compliance review report for reviews conducted in the previous three years, along with the purpose or reason for the review, the name of the organization that performed the review, a summary of findings and recommendations, and a report on the status or disposition of the findings and recommendations
- Chesterfield Community Services Board Limited English Proficiency (LEP) plan
- Chesterfield Community Services Board procedures for tracking and investigating Title VI complaints
- A complete list of Title VI investigations, complaints or lawsuits filed with the Chesterfield Community Services Board since the last submission
- A copy of Chesterfield Community Services Board agency's notice to the public that it complies with Title VI and instructions on how to file a discrimination complaint

XI. Environmental Justice (for All Construction Projects)

For new construction and major rehabilitation or renovation projects where National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) documentation is required, Chesterfield Community Services Board will integrate an environmental justice analysis into the NEPA documentation for submission to DRPT. The development of environmental justice analyses is the responsibility of the Chesterfield County General Services Department.

XII. NOTICE UNDER THE AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT

David Meadows, at (804) 706-2561 or meadowswi@chesterfield.gov as soon as possible but no later than 48 hours before the scheduled event.

The ADA does not require Chesterfield Community Services Board to take any action that would fundamentally alter the nature of its programs or services, or impose any undue financial or administrative burden.

Chesterfield Community Services Board will not place a surcharge on a particular individual with a disability or any group of individuals with disabilities to cover the cost of providing auxiliary aids/services or reasonable modifications of policy.

Appendix E – Public Outreach and Involvement

PUBLIC PARTICIPATION PLAN

Public outreach and involvement applies to and affects Chesterfield Community Services Board mission and work program as a whole, particularly agency efforts and responsibilities related to Chesterfield Community Services Board's service planning. The overall goal of Chesterfield Community Service Board's public outreach and involvement policy is to secure early and continuous public notification about, and participation in, major actions and decisions by Chesterfield Community Service Board. In seeking public comment and review, Chesterfield Community Service Boards makes a concerted effort to reach all segments of the population, including people from minority and low-income communities, persons with limited English Proficiency and organizations representing these and other protected classes. Chesterfield Community Services Board utilizes a broad range of public outreach information and involvement opportunities, including a process for written comments, public meetings after effective notice, settings for open discussion, information services, and consideration of and response to public comments.

Public Outreach Activities

Chesterfield Community Services Board takes the following steps to ensure that minority, low-income, and LEP members of the community have meaningful access to public outreach and involvement activities, including those conducted as part of the planning process for proposed changes in services, fares, and facilities development.

- Publishing public notices within local newspapers of general circulation as well as those targeted at minority, low income and LEP persons and on the agency's website.

Public notices are issued to:

- announce opportunity to participate or provide input in planning for service changes, fare changes, new services, and new or improved facilities (early in the process)
 - announce the formal comment period on proposed major service reductions and fare increases with instructions for submitting comments including a public hearing (or opportunity for a public hearing with instructions for requesting a hearing if this is the LOTS' local policy) (at the end of the planning process)
 - announce impending service and fare changes (after plan has been finalized)
 - announce intent to apply for public transit funding from DRPT, and to announce the formal comment period on the proposed program of projects, with a public hearing (or opportunity for one) (annually in advance of submitting the A TP)
- Posting public notices as described above at major passenger/public facilities and in all vehicles.

- Sending news releases to news media (newspapers, radio, television, web media) of general interest as well as those targeted at minority and LEP persons, as well as community-based organizations that serve persons protected under Title VI and which publish newsletters.
- Conducting in-person outreach upon request at public meetings, community-based organizations, human service organizations which assist low income and LEP persons, places of worship, service organization meetings, cultural centers, and other places and events that reach out to persons protected under Title VI. The availability of Chesterfield Community Services Board staff for such speaking engagements is posted on the agency's website.
- Conducting periodic customer satisfaction surveys which are distributed to passengers on vehicles.

The above activities are the responsibility of Joyce Hill.

Chesterfield Community Services Board recognizes the importance of continuously developing the cultural awareness and competency of all staff, in order to provide the most appropriate transportation service to all members of our diverse community. Chesterfield Community Services Board envisions being a culturally competent agency that treats all persons (internal and external) with dignity, respect, and sensitivity as evidenced in the physical environment; in communication; in services; in staff knowledge, skills, and abilities; and in the organization's commitment and support.

Cultural competence is defined as the willingness and ability of all people to recognize and value the importance of differences (i.e., age, gender, family, friends, culture/ethnic background, sexual orientation, mental/physical disability, spiritual beliefs, and socio-economic class) through developing an understanding, awareness, and acceptance of these differences. Cultural sensitivity, which we strive for, is defined as “knowing cultural differences and similarities exist, without assigning them values, i.e., better or worse, right or wrong” (National Maternal and Child Health Center on Cultural Competency '97). Culturally competent organizations promote quality services, and encourage the continued development and integration of knowledge, information, and data. With this knowledge, the organization can then develop service delivery methods that are appropriate for the populations we serve.

Cultural competence extends as well into the area of linguistic competence. As an organization we understand that in order to communicate effectively, we need to have the linguistic capacity to do so in situations where there are persons with limited English proficiency, low or no literacy skills and those that are hearing impaired.

Chesterfield Community Services Board's promotes this cultural competency plan within the department strategic plan.

Cultural and Linguistically Appropriate Service standard that applies:

Standard 8. Health care organizations should develop, implement, and promote a written strategic plan that outlines clear goals, policies, operational plans, and management accountability/oversight mechanisms to provide culturally and linguistically appropriate services.

I. National Standards for Culturally and Linguistically Appropriate Service in Health Care

The National Standards for Culturally and Linguistically Appropriate Service (CLAS) are guidelines that have been established by the federal Health and Human Services Department, Office of Minority Health. These standards apply to all health care organizations that receive federal funds.

The standards help ensure that all people entering our system receive equitable and effective treatment in a culturally and linguistically appropriate manner. The standards are incorporated throughout our cultural competency plan.

There are 14 standards that are organized by themes:

Culturally Competent Care (Standards 1-3)

Language Access Services (Standards 4-7)

Organizational Supports for Cultural Competence (Standards 8-14).

They are further broken down by standards that are mandated (current Federal requirements for all recipients of Federal funds (Standards 4, 5, 6, and 7); guidelines (activities recommended by OMH for adoption (Standards 1, 2, 3, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, and 13); and recommendations (suggested by OMH for voluntary adoption by health care organizations (Standard 14).

II. Data/Demographics

Accurate information on our potential individual base, as well as the people we serve, is vital to ensure that we have the cultural competence and skill to serve those in need.

Demographic information on the Chesterfield County community that we serve is obtained through the county's "Demographic and Economic Profile". This information includes population data, age ranges, economic and income data, race and ethnicity and family characteristics (household trends). We can also access information on language preferences of county population.

The demographics gathered on the individuals we serve should include the following: ethnicity, race and Hispanic origin, age, gender, primary language and level of proficiency in English, physical abilities and limitations, family roles, community networks, literacy, employment and economic factors. This information should be drawn from individual records and assessments made by staff.

The department should also assess any existing resources such as the type and availability of housing, employment options, educational opportunities, language assistance for translation and interpreter services, and community-based organizations.

The data collected above will guide the department on the types of transportation services that will be needed to reach people who need assistance.

CLAS standards that apply:

Standard 9

Health care organizations should conduct initial and ongoing organizational self-assessments of CLAS-related activities and are encouraged to integrate cultural and linguistic competence-related measures into their internal audits, performance improvement programs, patient satisfaction assessments, and outcomes-based evaluations.

Standard 10

Health care organizations should ensure that data on the individual patient's/individual's race, ethnicity, and spoken and written language are collected in health records, integrated into the organization's management information systems, and periodically updated.

Standard 11

Health care organizations should maintain a current demographic, cultural, and epidemiological profile of the community as well as a needs assessment to accurately plan for and implement services that respond to the cultural and linguistic characteristics of the service area.

III. Staffing

The department's strategic plan supports the hiring of a diverse and competent workforce. To this end, all position vacancy information contains a statement that encourages qualified diverse and bilingual individuals to apply. The department also adheres to providing equal opportunities for advancement in the organization of qualified individuals.

Based on demographic information and input from both those we serve and our staff, a regular assessment can be made of the development needs of staff. The department will identify and set objectives on an on-going basis as to which areas need development. In addition, the department will provide the means for staff to obtain the training needed to increase cultural sensitivity, awareness and the ability to provide culturally relevant transportation services.

One resource for this training will be the Diversity Advisory Group. This team is made up of staff across programs who are committed to providing various cultural competency training opportunities to staff.

CLAS standards that apply:

Standard 2

Health care organizations should implement strategies to recruit, retain, and promote at all levels of the organization a diverse staff and leadership that are representative of the demographic characteristics of the service area.

Standard 3

Health care organizations should ensure that staff at all levels and across all disciplines receive ongoing education and training in culturally and linguistically appropriate service delivery.

IV. Communication

Being able to communicate with the individuals we serve is key to being able to assist the individual reach their service goals. Communication includes creating a welcoming environment that reflects the belief that people and their individual differences and contributions are valued. One way to achieve this is to ensure that the physical surroundings have information in languages that are reflective of those we serve and those seeking services.

One of the goals of the organization is to have linguistic competence. This is defined as having the capacity and staff who are able to communicate effectively in a way that is understood by diverse individuals. This includes those who have limited English proficiency, little or no literacy skills or those that are hearing impaired.

The demographics gathered on the community we serve will guide us on which languages we need to become competent in. If we do not have staff who are fluent in a specific language, we will need to use language assistance services to meet the needs of the community. Publishing a list of current staff who are bilingual and having that list available to service providers is one resource. In addition, a published list of language translation services (as well as interpreters for deaf individuals) shall be available as well. Vital information and documents should be translated into those languages most prevalent in our community. With the data collected on types and availability of community resources, we can further develop strategies to include and utilize these community resources in assisting with the individuals we serve. Communicating what these resources are to the community also serves as outreach to those in need.

CLAS standards that apply:

Standard 4

Health care organizations must offer and provide language assistance services, including bilingual staff and interpreter services, at no cost to each patient/individual with limited English proficiency at all points of contact, in a timely manner during all hours of operation.

Standard 5

Health care organizations must provide to patients/individuals in their preferred language both verbal offers and written notices informing them of their right to receive language assistance services.

Standard 6

Health care organizations must assure the competence of language assistance provided to limited English proficient patients/individuals by interpreters and bilingual staff. Family and friends should not be used to provide interpretation services (except on request by the patient/individual).

Standard 7

and post signage in the languages of the commonly encountered groups and/or groups represented in the service area.

Standard 14

Health care organizations are encouraged to regularly make available to the public information about their progress and successful innovations in implementing the CLAS standards and to provide public notice in their communities about the availability of this information

V. Service Provision

Chesterfield Community Services Board is a culturally competent organization that incorporates the knowledge we have gained into the service provision arena. Service providers should utilize any cultural assessment information obtained from the individual when developing transportation service plans. Understanding the culture of the individuals we serve will assist in developing plans that are accepted by the individual and will have a better likelihood of compliance. The programs should research and implement best practice models that have proven successful across various cultures. The programs should also be ready to address any barriers that develop when the expectations of the transportation service provider and the individual differ. We will utilize community resources and supports as appropriate, as well as consider individual preferences for therapists and service providers during intake and assessments.

CLAS standards that apply:

Standard 1

Health care organizations should ensure that patients/individuals receive from all staff member's effective, understandable, and respectful care that is provided in a manner compatible with their cultural health beliefs and practices and preferred language.

Standard 12

Health care organizations should develop participatory, collaborative partnerships with communities and utilize a variety of formal and informal mechanisms to facilitate community and patient/individual involvement in designing and implementing CLAS-related activities.

Standard 13

Health care organizations should ensure that conflict and grievance resolution processes are culturally and linguistically sensitive and capable of identifying, preventing, and resolving cross-cultural conflicts or complaints by patients/individuals.

VI. Accountability

Chesterfield Community Services Boards will support increasing cultural competence as evidenced by Agency commitment and accountability to all aspects of the Cultural Competency Plan. We recognize that various staff or teams will need to play an active role in order for this plan to be successful.

The managers will work together to develop a method for capturing information about the cultural competency needs of staff. Managers will be responsible for sharing this information with their staff requesting their input on developmental needs. These recommendations should be presented to Leadership Team for review and confirmation of training needs.

The identified training needs will be forwarded to the Diversity Advisory Group. This group will review the needs and determine which ones are within their means to provide. This group may also provide information on low or no cost training opportunities. Larger training efforts may need to be addressed at the leadership team level as funding will need to be identified for any of these efforts.

Program staff will be responsible for obtaining and entering all demographic data on individuals, once the new information system is in place. Reports on this data will be run quarterly by managers. The reports will be used to provide additional information needed to support training decisions.

Language translation/interpreter listings will be updated as needed and made available to all staff on our intranet site. Human Resources will continue efforts to recruit qualified diverse staff.

The Diversity Advisory Group will meet on a monthly basis to develop training opportunities, and will be the responsible group for reviewing and revising the Cultural Competency Plan annually. In addition, this group will conduct ongoing assessments of the organization's cultural competency.
